

On September 9th and 10th, 1926. As per instructions from Mr. Pheiffer, I proceeded to Saratoga, N.Y., for the purpose of locating one Pearl Bahmer, who is supposed to be known by one Claude Salisbury. Canvassed Albany and Saratoga and showed newspaper clippings of her photograph but was unable to secure any information as to her whereabouts.

My observation of #58 Washington Street, Saratoga, it appears to me that it is run as a hotel. I noticed a man in his forty's outside of the premises on a number of occasions. At one particular time he was sweeping the sidewalk. As I did not have a description of Salisbury I could not tell whether it was him or not. Alongside of his place is a hotel known as The Dsantis, which is located near the railroad crossing.

I also find the following Salisbury's listed in Saratoga:-
J.G. Salisbury 120 Union Avenue, Telephone 891 Saratoga Springs, J.G. Salisbury Off. City Hall, telephone 349 Saratoga Springs, H. B. Salisbury 456 Broadway telephone 1064 M. Saratoga Springs, Mrs. Viola B. Salisbury 58 Washington Street, telephone 289-3 Saratoga Springs.
